TRAINING & PLACEMENTS COMMITTEE CONSTITUTION

Operational Procedures

The Training & Placements Support Committee shall follow a structured and systematic procedure for the planning, execution, and monitoring of all training and placement activities throughout the academic year. Based on the approved training calendar, the team coordinates technical training, VQRS sessions, aptitude and soft skills programs, internal screening examinations, and company-specific preparation modules in collaboration with faculty members, trainers, and external partners. In addition, standardized assessments, including NEOPAT Assessment, mock tests, and practice aptitude tests, are conducted periodically to evaluate students' employability skills, track performance levels, and identify areas requiring focused improvement. Student data, attendance, and assessment outcomes are maintained through structured trackers and dashboards to ensure transparency, continuous monitoring, and timely remedial interventions for enhancing placement readiness.

All placement drives and related events shall be executed through coordinated efforts among designated teams responsible for communication, logistics, evaluation, documentation, and reporting. Official circulars, schedules, and instructions are disseminated through authorized communication channels, while compliance records, MIS reports, and placement statistics are systematically archived for institutional review and accreditation requirements. Periodic review meetings are conducted under the guidance of the Chairperson and Director – Training & Placements to evaluate outcomes and implement process improvements. The procedures, responsibilities, and assessment mechanisms are subject to revision or modification by the competent authority in accordance with administrative and operational requirements to ensure the effective functioning of the committee.
